

Pawsitively Transformational
Health and Wellness, Inc

Dr. Nathaniel Lukas Redekopp,

PhD, NCC, LMHC, CMHIMP, CPDT-KA

Nathaniel is an integrative mental health therapist and bilingual (English/Spanish) educator experienced with vocational through university-level curriculum design and instruction, in person and online. He is a National Certified Counselor, Licensed Mental Health Counselor, and Certified Mental Health Integrative Medicine Provider. His professional experience includes work in multicultural education with specialty in gender, civil rights and disability rights education, as well as his numerous presentations and trainings conducted for professionals, organizations, and community members on gender diversity. Recipients of his trainings include: Albuquerque Public Schools, Public Allies of New Mexico (Americorps), University of New Mexico, Alamogordo Police Department Crisis Intervention Team (CIT), Psychosocial Rehabilitation Association of New Mexico, New Mexico Addictions Education Network (NMAEN), and Gender Odyssey International. Nathaniel is a certified trainer on the topic of transgender people through the Transgender Resource Center of New Mexico (TGRCNM). His work experience in collaboration with community leaders includes coordinating a strategic partnership between New Mexico Public Allies (Americorps), Albuquerque Public Schools Office of Equal Opportunity, and the New Mexico Transgender Resource Center to organize and conduct Title IX diversity trainings for Albuquerque Public Schools faculty and staff.